DEDICATION

Miss Branch and Miss Cross

We, the senior class of 1949, dedicate this annual to MISS EVA BRANCH and MISS CATHERINE CROSS in view of their ceaseless efforts to teach and counsel us with patience and understanding.

FOREWORD

A leaf in history was turned, and upon that page was recorded the adventures of a colorful, dashing people — the Forty-Niners, who went West in this country of ours to seek wealth and to conquer the vast unsettled regions.

Now a century later we, the Forty-Niners of the twentieth century, are preparing to set out, hoping that we, too, may be able to have a page of history devoted to us and to our accomplishments.

Unlike our forefathers we have no frontier. But in its place we have a new era, the "Atomic Age", which presents a great many opportunities.

ADVERTISEMENTS

ORGANIZATION

Our Principal, Dr. Fred B. Dixon

The entire staff joins me in congratulating you on finishing your high school education. The Class of 1949 has been an outstanding one in the history of this school. Many individuals in your group have brought credit to themselves and to the class by doing superior work. Probably more important than this is the fact that the members of your class have learned to work together as a group. May I express the hope that each of you will continue this important trait of teamwork in whatever occupation you may enter?

Those of us who plan to be here next year are grateful to you for the work you did and the activities you took part in to make John Marshall a better school. We say farewell to you as students, but greet you as alumni.

Sincerely,

Fred B. Dixon

The classes and faculty in a pioneer's schooling were a definite contrast to those of today. The hearth served as the class room; the mother served in the capacity of teacher; the text books were the Bible and Almanac; and a small slate was used as paper is today.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Seated: Arnold Hyman, Miss Keene, Adrian Gregory.
Standing: Shirley Nichols, Mac Smith, Jeanne Cross.

Oh, the Class of '49 – '49, the year to be remembered as the year of FIRSTS. For the First time in the history of John Marshall, the senior class had two parties at officer-election time, the Progressive and the Independents.

When votes were counted, the Independent party was successful in the election of Adrian Gregory as president, Arnold Hyman, first vice-president, and Jeanne Cross, senior class secretary.

Another FIRST was recorded with the elections; everyone voted at a central polling place in room 1-B by secret ballot. Although the class was not organized until December, the officers began with a bang, starting plans for the commencement dance which was held January 27 in the George Wythe Gymnasium.

To the dreamy music of the Debonairs (directed by Arnold Hyman), the twirling couples revolved in the pink and blue crepe-papered gym. Highlighting the semi-formal dance was the announcement of the high senior Who's Who. Adrian Gregory crowned Sue Hallam and John Burton queen and king of the affair and Charlie Nunn announced in catchy

FOOD! And what a scramble!

The senior "yell leaders" out to lunch rhyme Mildred Glass and Bob Pate, most athletic; Margie Hall and Charlie Nunn cutest; Judy Beasley and Ralph Shoemaker best all-round; Connie Smith and Bob Parrish most popular; Gwen King and Walter Tucker most intelligent; and Lulu Horemiotes and James Poole most-likely-to-succeed.

For the FIRST time lower classmen were able to attend the dance on guest membership cards.

The FIRST commencement tea was held for February graduates after the rehearsal for commencement.

At the baccalaureate service on Sunday, January 30, Dr. Solon B. Cousins, teacher of Bible at the University of Richmond, was the principal speaker.

On January 31, 172 seniors waited eagerly to receive their diplomas. As Major William Brock called the graduates to the stage, Dr. Fred B. Dixon and Miss Thelma B. Keene presented the diplomas. For the FIRST time at any high school graduation pictures of each graduate were taken by a local photographer. The verse-speaking choir presented a pageant entitled "Are We Ready?"

And then came a new term. Arnold Hyman became president of the class with Shirley Nichols as vice-president. Other officers remained the same.

On March 21, the senior class presented the FIRST program in the FIRST series of Junior Town Meetings broadcast over Station WRNL.

On April 8, Westhampton College was the scene of an informal tea held for John Marshall senior girls.

Dignity always prevails at a senior function!

We are real forty-niners.

Our first public appearance together.

A Student Leadership Workshop, the FIRST of its kind, was held during the month of March. Discussion leaders were Dr. Fred Dixon, Misses Mary Lambert, Vivien King, and Thelma Keene.

During the month of April another FIRST, a college workshop was held. College students returned to John Marshall to participate in the discussion groups.

But the biggest and best FIRST was yet to come. Early in May, a Junior-Senior Prom was held at which Juniors honored Seniors (and vice-versa). Within the gayly decorated armory, Seniors and Juniors "tripped the light fantastic toe" to soft music. The May Queen with her court and members of the Senior and Junior "Who's Who" took the spotlight.

At commencement there was another FIRST; a Signature Party was held so that we could autograph our Marshallites. On June 5, the impressive baccalaureate service for the June '49 graduates was held in the school auditorium. And then graduation. Over three hundred graduates walked proudly down the aisles at the Mosque to receive their diplomas on Friday evening, June 10. Once more Miss Thelma Keene, senior counselor, and Dr. Dixon presented the diplomas.

Thus the Class of '49 – the year of FIRSTS, left the halls of John Marshall to make room for new freshmen to tred well-worn paths toward an education. We hope that they have as much fun as we did.

MARY THURMAN

With all the due pomp and dignity, we made our final appearance together.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Alvin Southworth, Jeff Pitts, Miss Bray, Bobby Johnson, Bill Snead

President	Bill Snead
Vice-President	Bobby Johnson
Secretary	Jeff Pitts
Treasurer	Alvin Southworth

During the past year, the junior class has taken great strides in making the school life of John Marshall a pleasure. With the able and appreciated assistance of Miss Bray, our counselor, we are recognized as one of the best and liveliest organizations in the school.

The juniors usually head the list in numbers of honor roll students and many are on the staffs of our school publications. In the sports world, the juniors have made a great name for themselves. For example, Melvin Roach is a star in basketball, Otis Redford in football, and Jack Sanford in track. Most of the cheerleaders are juniors, too. But the honors do not go to just the sports lovers. In the John Marshall Student Association, Bill Snead is treasurer and Joyce Filer is secretary.

Under the co-chairmanship of Betty Carroll and Ernie Wilson, we won first prize in the skit contest at the pep rally. The girls, representing the T. J. team and dressed in red and white, were completely crushed by the J. M. team, comprised of boys dressed in our school colors. This brought a storm of cheers and applause from the grandstand.

When the S. C. A. met here at John Marshall, many of the junior girls served as waitresses and decorators at the banquet. The juniors also served as guides at the first P. T. S. A. meeting of last fall and took part in the program of skits at the second meeting. This spring we had a junior-senior prom which was the gala event of the year.

Although many of us will be seniors soon, the junior class will remain in the memories of our high school days.

The journey across our country was a long and laborious one. Problems arose of which only cooperation was the solution. At night fall, many met, discussed their respective problems, and reached a solution. Sometimes, however, the purpose of the assembly was recreational.

While the PTSA at John Marshall is a young organization — just two years old — it has grown steadily since its beginning.

The PTSA was organized to create better understanding and more cooperation between the school, home, and community. It aims to encourage students, teachers, and parents to work as a harmonious whole and to acquaint the parents and community with the activities of the school.

The executive committee this year planned and carried through three general meetings with parents, teachers, and students present. The first meeting, held in September, was a "get acquainted" meeting; the second, in December, was a pageant portraying a cross section of school life, presented by the students for the parents; and the third, in April, was a display of work done by students in various departments.

Our parents are invited to visit us.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Billy Robertson, Jo Hull, Sue Hallam trim the Christmas tree.

President	Sue Hallam
Vice-President	Jo Frieda Hull
Secretary	Joyce Filer
Treasurer	Bill Snead

The student association, organized by Mr. Clinton Cosby, has, with the help of Miss Mary Gladys Lambert and Miss Catherine Cross as faculty advisers, been very successful in its work for the '48-'49 session.

In the 1948 spring term the students voted for the officers and members of the executive committee. These officers were students who the other students thought were capable of carrying out the work of the organization. The students were elected on the basis of their willingness to work, their previous school activities, and their dependability.

The executive committee meets once a week and has functioned as a commission type of government under the following commissions: Assembly; Cafeteria; Point System, which is to ensure that more students participate in school activities; Service awards, to award those who have not gained recognition in school services; School spirit and morale; Publicity; Research; and Safety. Each one of these commissions is aided by a faculty sponsor.

In the spring election the student body made Sue Hallam president and Jo Frieda Hull vice-president. Upon Sue's graduation in February, Jo Hull became president for the spring term.

During the '48-'49 terms the student association undertook several projects and carried out most of them. In November the Student Cooperative Association of Virginia held its 25th anniversary convention at John Marshall. The J. M. S. A. participated in every way to make the convention a success. Under Dr. Fred Dixon, general faculty chairman, and Jo Hull, general student chairman, the executive committee was in charge of all arrangements, and the members served on the committees under the guidance of a faculty adviser.

Sue Hallam remarked about the convention, "Without the help of each committee member and adviser, this convention would not have been a success." The convention emphasized the opportunities and responsibilities of the individual in a democratic form of life.

During the football season the student association sold blue and white schedule pencils. They also sold football pins, basketball pencils, and baseball schedule pencils. The student association held pep rallies each morning before the important football games to help increase school spirit.

To honor the dead of World War I and II, the student association contributed two memorial wreaths at a special school Armistice Day program.

Cooperating with community projects, the student association collected $100 for the Christmas Mother, $434.45 for the March of Dimes, and worked with the City Division of Recreation and planned a Christmas dance at the Mosque.

Participating with the P. T. S. A. the executive committee of the student association had a very enjoyable outing to Hopewell on a naval patrol boat.

At the beginning of each term, the student association held an orientation assembly for the new freshmen coming to John Marshall. Dr. Fred B. Dixon, the school's principal, and several leaders of school activties were introduced to the freshmen at these exercises. The freshmen were carried on a tour of the buildings, including offices and the library. After the tour they were served refreshments in the Wythe cafeteria.

Sue Hallam acts as guide in the freshman orientation.

Jo Hull, vice-president; Bill Snead, treasurer; Joyce Filer, secretary; Eddie Huff, athletic council; Sue Hallam, president.

On February 11 the S. A. held a tea for Dr. T. Q. Srygley, faculty sponsor of the Southern Association of Student Councils, who spoke to the student association representatives of all the schools around Richmond. Dr. Srygley spoke on the selection of students, by their fellow students, for membership in the executive committee of their school.

The executive committee has voted to use the Club Room (room 6) as its permanent meeting place and it has already starting redecorating the room.

Those of the February and June graduating classes who have faithfully served the student association leave their best wishes to the new members of the student association of J. M. H. S.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

President	Judy Beazley
Secretary	Barbara Atkins
Treasurer	James Ball
Scrapbook Keeper	Dorothy Clarke
Sponsor	Miss Wright

The John Marshall Chapter of the National Honor Society initiated seventeen students into its ranks at its fifteenth induction ceremony. The ceremony took place in early January during a senior assembly.

The four principles of the Honor Society are character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Candidates for membership are selected from those students who have a scholastic average of 90 or above. They are voted into the society by its members of the class before, acting on the advice of the faculty.

At the end of the semester a party was held at the Wythe Tea Room. Invitations were sent to the old members, and everyone had a most enjoyable time.

Officers for the spring term were elected in February. They are as follows: President, Warren Vaughn; Secretary, Barbara Warren; Treasurer, Mary Thurman; Scrapbook Keeper, Norma Kramer.

During the past two years, the Honor Society has prospered under the wise counsel of Miss Wilhelmina F. Wright, its sponsor. Dr. C. Patrick Ely introduced the society into John Marshall in 1939. The national chapter was organized in 1921, and the society now numbers more than 2,400 chapters in high schools throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, and the Philippines.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Lighting candles representing truth, leadership, loyalty, friendship, initiative, opportunity, and cultural attainment, eighteen staff members of school publications became members of Quill and Scroll, the international honor society for high school journalists, in early December. Besides meeting these ideals, a student must be in the upper third of the class, do distinctive work on a publication, and be recommended by the sponsor. Kathleen Burkett, a former editor of The Record and a member of Quill and Scroll, conducted the impressive ceremony. The initiates were Bernice Berkman, Florace Lockwood, Austin Farley, Walter Tucker, Mary Ann Watts, Marjorie Hall, Jimmy Ball, Sue Hallam, James Poole, Page Beck, Mildred Glass, Betty Dean, Judy Beasley, Bill Crumpler, Shirley Jones, Billy Wilkerson, Lulu Horemiotes, and Shirley Farmer.

Immediately after the initiation, Miss Charles Anthony, the sponsor, had a party for the initiates, their families, and members of the journalism class, at which time the new members received their membership cards and Quill and Scroll pins.

At the first meeting, the following became officers: Betty Dean, president; Judy Beasley, vice-president; James Poole, secretary-treasurer; Mary Ann Watts, scrapbook keeper; Lulu Horemiotes, reporter. Two of the initiates, Bernice Berkman and Florace Lockwood, were members of the Record staff. The others were all on the Monocle staff. The society held meetings regularly in 104, with the new officers taking charge.

Shortly before Christmas, the society had its annual Christmas party. With the present members forming a receiving line and the journalism class serving cookies and pepsi-cola, everyone had a good time. Many Quill and Scroll alumni returned to school to meet the new members and greet Miss Anthony. Quill and Scroll alumni also took part in the Monocle birthday party, March 1.

Quill and Scroll members were distinguished in other school activities, too. The president of the John Marshall Student Association, five Key Club members, and several members of the National Honor Society were members of the John Marshall chapter. In the Christmas pageant, Quill and Scroll members took most of the important parts.

THE VOCAL CLASSES

The Opera Class includes in its membership the Marshall-singers, The Girls' Ensemble, part of the Cadet Ensemble, The Male Chorus, the nucleus of the Girls' Chorus, and soloists.

The Opera Class represents the School in most events where music is needed. This group produced the Gilbert and Sullivan opera, The Gondoliers: sang at the Baccalaureate services and commencements in February and June; sang carols for the Christmas Pageant, the Superintendent's office, Ruffner Building, the Governor's Mansion, and the Kiwanis Club; and appeared in a concert at Bainbridge Junior High School. This group is organized with officers, and in February, Tommy Vaughn, retiring president, who had held office for two semesters, presided over an election that established officers, as follows: Chaucile Baker, president; and Eunice Glasco, Neoma Johnson, Bernard Childress, and Francis Johnson, vice-presidents. Eunice Glasco is accompanist for the groups.

The Girls' Chorus, which is rehearsed during recess periods, sang in the State Competitive Festival, at Thomas Jefferson High School, in April. Patricia Wells is the accompanist.

The Girls' Ensemble, twelve in number, with Pat Wells as accompanist, sang a concert under direction of the Red Cross, at McGuire's Hospital, in November. Their numbers included ensembles and solos.

The Marshallsingers, a mixed ensemble of twelve members, enjoyed a busy season. They sang in the studio of WMBG, for the Monocle program, and made several recordings which were used during the season; they sang at the Student Cooperative Association State meeting in November; for the Key Club, at John Marshall School; for assembly programs; for a meeting of the Federation of Parent-Teachers Association; for the Optimist Club, at the John Marshall Hotel; and in a contest, at the State Festival.

Students, who must have had at least one term in speech, direct, produce, and act in plays given in room 209. In this room are stage, curtains and other equipment, which were obtained by Miss De Courcy. Besides acting, each student keeps a record of the activities of the entire course in a notebook with pictures of costumes through the ages. Work on committees such as library, costumes, lights, props, make-up, set, and bulletin board is included.

During the last few years it has risen in popularity through the work of its sponsor, Miss Doris Sutton, and its executives.

The group is not so interested in actual production of plays as it is in learning fundamentals of the stage, for most of the members do not take a course in which drama is a subject.

There are quite a few social events connected with membership, for the members 'get together' and see professional stage productions, have parties, and discuss current plays in town and on Broadway.

The meetings, held in room six, often include individual and group panomines, short plays, skits, and whenever possible a wire recorder is used to hear how our voices sound to others.

During the year the club has taken part in assemblies, and school plays, plus doing some radio work on the school program and others.

One of the year's biggest events was the graduation party. Barbara Wood won the "booby prize" of a package of gum, and Mary Ashby, the main prize of a box of candy, in a song contest presented by Anne Burnett, Tony Austin, and Joe Lett. Joe succeeded Dot Browdy as vice-president.

After the games and panomines, refreshments were served and everyone ate, drank, and was merry.

The year closed with another party to say goodbye to the graduating members and to greet the new officers.

The play, Three's a Crowd, being rehearsed.

The Junior Red Cross is one of the best known organizations at J. M., as it sponsors many activities relative to the students. The representatives from homerooms lead in filling Christmas boxes to send overseas and in collecting funds for the city-wide Junior Red Cross drive. They raise funds for school activities by collecting waste paper and selling it. These activities include special donations and partial payments of medical bills for the students who are not able to pay. We have been guided by our sponsor Miss Benton, and we greatly appreciate her leadership and aid.

The members correspond with Christian students in Scotland, Japan, and Korea. The Verse-Speaking Choir was organized in the fall of 1946. Although the choir did not receive its charter until March 5, 1947, it made its first public appearance in a talent assembly program in October, 1946. Shortly after this program it recited selections at the Thanksgiving assemblies. At the dedication of the plaque in honor of those who gave their lives for their country in World War II, the choir gave its interpretation of selections from the Psalms. It has also appeared at each meeting of the Parent-Teacher-Student Association. The choir has taken part in the annual Christmas pageants. Since its organization this group has read at each commencement original selections written especially for the choir for presentation on these occasions.

Some of the selections read by the choir are "The Highwayman", "A Quaker's Wooing", "Work", "A Chant Out of Doors, and "Thirteen Sisters".

The Verse-Speaking Choir by participating in many activities at John Marshall has tried to stimulate in its members a greater appreciation of poetry and prose and to create in the audience greater interest in interpretation through choral reading.

! Buenos días! The Don Juan Club again proudly reports a successful and eventful year, with a good membership of the «de habla española» students.

Our programs have both instructive and entertaining features. They include singing, games requiring a minimum knowledge of Spanish, studies of the life and customs of our neighbors South of the Border, and short plays. ? En español? Sin duda.

The outstanding event of the fall is our trip to Washnigton. With a chartered bus at our command and a bountiful lunch in our possession, we visit first Mt. Vernon and then many places of interest in our Capital. The Pan-American Building is a special treat providing the true Spanish atmosphere including patio, rubber plants, coffee trees and the beautiful reception hall of the twenty-one nations of the Pan-American Union. The Monument, the Capitol, and the Smithsonian Institute are duly inspected and not until the last bear seeks his shelter, are we willing to start our homeward journey.

The French and Spanish banquet, the highlights of the spring term, gives our own members an opportunity to display their own Spanish and also to hear it as it is really spoken by the natives. This is an evening with a truly foreign atmosphere.

Our motto is «Adelante, Siempre Adelante» — so that is what we are doing — looking forward to better things next year. ! Adios, amigos!

BUSINESS EDUCATION CLUB

President	June Holder
Vice-President	Marion Smith
Secretary-Treasurer	Joyce Baldwin
Reporter	Jean Cross

The John Marshall Business Education Club was organized in October, 1947, with approximately 50 members of the business department of the school. Membership is open to all boys and girls taking one or more subjects in the field.

The primary functions of the club are to afford opportunity for improving efficiency in business; to gain and attain higher standards in the profession; to provide a facility for acquiring skilled knowledge, short cuts and up-to-date techniques in stenography; to promote mutual understanding among students with similar goals; to encourage additional students to study commerce; and to broaden our views socially and professionally.

The activities are unlimited in the business department. Our meetings are held monthly at two recess periods. We have been able to acquire the services of numerous men in personnel divisions of local organizations, who have spoken on such topics as "Choosing a Steno," "Interviews," "The Clerical Job," and "Promotion Possibilities." Mrs. Christine Winston, of Markells Service, was among our recent guest speakers. Mr. W. V. Mann of the Smith-Corona Typewriter Company, gave an excellent demonstration of new model typewriters.

Also, the club members have seen many films, including "It Must Be Somewhere" (on filing); "Bookkeeping and You," "Telephone Operation," "Dictation Shortcuts," "Maintenance of Office Machines," and "Ready to Typewrite," a film on typing techniques.

The members go on field trips to business houses available, such as the C&P Telephone Company, where we were guided through the Companys seven-story building by personnel representatives and their Traffic Manager. The field trip to the local bank is one of our annual spring meetings, and a field trip to the newspaper office is planned.

At our December meeting, a Christmas pageant was presented by about ten members.

In addition to the officers listed above, the following committees plan and expedite the functions of our club:

The students pictured above are members of J. M. Chapter of the Associated Distributive Education Clubs of America, an organization composed of high school and college retailing students and alumni. There Marshallites earn while they learn. They attend school in the morning, and with the help of Miss Vivien King, Distributive Education Coordinator, find employment in Richmond's retail and wholesale establishments where they work a minimum of fifteen hours a week as part of their school training.

Their classroom and club activities are very closely related. They study salesmanship, display advertising, store organization, and stockkeeping, business arithemetic, and effective speech in the retailing class. Club programs are built around job opportunities in the field of distribution, discussions of various phases of retailing by outstanding businessmen, films, field trips to Richmond businesses, and visits with other Distributor's Clubs in the area.

Outstanding among the club's activities for this year were the traditional Christmas party; a one day visit to the convention of the associated Distributor's Clubs of Virginia held in Richmond March 14-15 where this chapter's delegate and president, Elizabeth Moore, was seen "in action"; and our annual employer-employee banquet, which was a delightful affair held in May.

At the sixth annual convention of the Associate Distributors Clubs of Virginia, in which Elizabeth Moore represented our club, we won first prize on our poster and won a certificate certifying our club as a superior club.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONAL TRAINING

It is believed that any complete and balanced program of industrial arts and vocational education should provide for cooperation of industry with the work of the high school.

Recognizing the importance of such articulation as well as the need for vocational adjustment of a considerable number of boys and girls who will soon be faced with the problem of making a living, a cooperative vocational training plan has been in operation at John Marshall for several years.

Through a cooperative agreement with employers and parents, students in their junior and senior years may elect to be placed in certain occupations serving as training agencies and cooperating with the school. These students receive training in the occupation of their choice and under actual working conditions for at least three hours a day for five days a week. They then spend three hours each day in school receiving one hour of technical instruction directly related to the job, and two hours of regular academic subjects required for high school graduation. They receive credit toward graduation for satisfactory work on the job, and are paid while doing it.

Gives the student a practical insight into the vocation and develops proper work habits and attitudes; provides a very real and practical guidance situation; retains for the students their identity with the regular high school graduating class; gives the student, upon graduation, the choice of either entering college or securing permanent employment.

Some idea of the diversity of occupations for which training is provided in the program may be had from a listing of the following training jobs engaged in by students this year: Auto electric parts repairman, Broadcast Radio and Audio Engineering, Electric motor repair work, Electrical appliance Repairman, Engraver, Estimator of Boiler Installation, Florist, Mail Clerk, Meat Cutter, Radio Repairman, Roofer, Service Station operator, Shipping clerk, Stock room clerk, Stoker Installation and Serviceman, Transportation Assistant, Woodworker, and X-Ray Technician Assistant.

LIBRARY STAFF

President .... Mary Ann Gravitt
Secretary .... Phyllis Smith

Through the efforts of the library staff, composed of thirty-five volunteer workers, the library is able to give more efficient service to the school. Their duties include shelving, slipping, and charging books; checking passes; and aiding other students in locating materials. The members of the staff feel that they have benefited greatly by serving on the staff and have aided their school in a very worth while activity.

The John Marshall Literary Society, organized for the benefit of book-lovers, continued its study of Virginia authors in the session of 1948-1949. In this study the members have taken many local trips, including a visit to the rare book room of the State Library, and to the Valentine Museum for a study of Poe's letters. A visit was also made to the Shakespeare Memorial Library in Washington.

It has been customary for the Literary Society to contribute annually one or more books to the School Library. This year The Virginian Reader by Francis Rosenberger, was chosen as the favorite of the Society.

The purpose of the John Marshall Forum Club is to promote among our students an awareness of the responsibility resting upon them as citizens. Through open discussions, guest speakers, and topical study, we have tried to gain an intelligent understanding of current problems and promote a peranent interest in civic affairs. We have found this an interesting and profitable way to discover one another's thoughts and opinions on many subjects.

Bonjour! mes amis. Comment allez-vous? During the semesters of '48-49 the Sans Souci Club has been wonderful, n'est-ce pas? The club was petit, but the small group found an atmosphere of friendliness. We will never forget the charming French speaker, a student of Union Theological Seminary. Then, too, the party was excellante. The annual French-Spanish Banquet will be remembered with its marvelous entertainment. Au revoir, à bientôt.

The John Marshall Key Club, which was organized in January, 1947, is composed of 35 outstanding boys in the school. These boys are selected by the principal and the faculty, and they must maintain a scholastic average of 80.

Among the projects for the year was sponsoring a magician show. This raised money for the club treasury. Another was entering a team in the Y. M. C. A. Senior Boys' Basketball League. The team lost most of the games, but all the boys enjoyed playing.

The programs of the weekly meetings had on them many interesting speakers. They spoke on vocations, trying to give the advantages and disadvantages of each. We heard talks on teaching, newspaper work, and many other subjects.

We also had speakers on other things besides vocations. Mr. Stone, of the Health Department, told us about the workings of the Community Chest. We went to the Forum Club before the election to hear Mr. Simpson, who told us about the Republican Party.

Mr. Harwood, the sponsor, and two members attended the Key Club National Convention in Washington, held in March. The Richmond Kiwanis Club sent Mr .Harwood. The convention is held for the purpose of exchanging ideas, discussing projects, and reporting on achievements for the year. Besides this, there are district conventions, but the John Marshall Club is not in an organized district.

One of the big days for the Key Club is the day on which the Key Clubbers take charge of the Kiwanis Club meeting. These joint meetings have always been a big success.

The first Key Club was organized in Sacramento, California, during 1925. Its purpose was to give vocational guidance to the students. Today there are more objects of the Key Club; to develop initiative and leadership, to provide experience in living and working together, to serve the school principal, and to prepare for useful citizenship. These make better citizens, the main object of the Key Club.

HI-Y CLUB

President	J. Henry Strite
Vice-President	Jimmie Williams
Secretary	George Rutherford
Treasurer	Charles Nunn

What is Hi-Y? A Hi-Y Club is an organization of fellows in a high school or community committed to the Hi-Y purpose and to the development of a stimulating program aimed to carry forward that purpose.

The first high school Y. M. C. A., of which there is any record, was organized in 1870, but disbanded three years later. The oldest Hi-Y Club with an unbroken record was organized fifty years ago in October, 1889, at Chapman, Kansas. The name Hi-Y first came into use in 1911 and was originated by a boys' club that called itself the Pi-Hi-Y. At present there are over 6,000 Hi-Y Clubs in the United States, in its territories, and in Canada, with an approximate enrollment of some 200,000 members.

The purpose of the Hi-Y movement is to create, to maintain, and to extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. The platform is clean living, clean speech, clean sports, and clean scholarship.

The John Marshall Hi-Y has a membership of 20 boys, several are outstanding athletes. The others are prominent in school activities and other clubs.

The club of the fall term of '48 and spring term of '49 was very active in carrying out projects. Buying two donkeys was the outstanding project. The boys had a treasury standing at approximately fifty dollars. With twenty dollars of it they purchased two donkeys for a mountain mission in Ecuador to aid the people in transportation. This project won national fame as one of the most important and largest undertakings for a Hi-Y Club. Four books of the Bible written in braille were sent to blind persons. At Christmas time the club gathered old clothes and sent them with food to a needy family in the state.

The club also had some socials, including a hayride and an outing at the Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp, Orapax.

Jayem's club meets every Tuesday night at 7:30 p. m. at the Central Y. M. C. A. The Hi-Y has a special room for its meetings which is shared with other local clubs.

The club is headed by the president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. There are several committees which present the boys with a chance to serve as chairman and gain experience in leadership.

THE MONOCLE

Two decades ago a small six-page publication circulated about John Marshall for the first time. Across the top of the first page appeared the title The Monocle, and from that time until now The Monocle has always come up with high honors.

Of course, with such an excellent record behind it, every year has been a busy one for the paper, but this year was extra-special. The baby publication celebrated its twentieth birthday on March 1. Miss Charles Anthony, Monocle adviser; Miss Eva Branch, supervisor of publications; and Dr. Fred B. Dixon, principal, blew out the twenty candles from the beautiful twelve-pound creation of a cake. Blue and white balloons lent a festive appearance to the press room; Miss Anthony's radio provided music for the occasion. Former staff members, as well as the present staff and reporters, worked havoc with the cake in a short while, and everyone left feeling truly proud of The Monocle's continuing success.

John Marshall's newspaper holds first-class honor in N. S. P. A., international honor rating from Quill and Scroll Society, plus the title of medalist from Columbia Scholastic Press Association of Columbia University.

In April The Monocle traveled to Lexington, Virginia to the Southern Interscholastic Press Meet at Washington and Lee University. The delegates to this meet had a truly marvelous time. They visited Natural Bridge and attended numerous other social events as well as many valuable lectures concerning the problems of journalism. Winning first honor rating at the convention was, however, the most important happening of the trip.

The Monocle entered papers in the regular Quill and Scroll critical service in May. Three copies of autumn papers and three spring Monocles took the journey.

THE MARSHALLITE

Each year the life and activities of our school are portrayed in THE MARSHALLITE, a book which is cherished more and more as the years go by for the memories it recalls of John Marshall.

Mrs. Burnett accepted the responsibility last year of being sponsor of the yearbook, and a staff of seniors was chosen to assist her. For better organization the staff was divided into committees, each committee being responsible for one particular part of the book.

Atheme had to be chosen for the book. It was finally our Editor-in-Chief who suggested the theme which we adopted – the Forty-Niners. In this book the life of us, students of the class of 1949, is compared with the life of the famous Forty-Niners of a hundred years ago.

The committees began to organize their work and gradually to get it accomplished. When all the primary work had been finished, such as taking senior pictures, getting senior writeups, and dividing the book into sections of a definite number of pages, a dummy was made of the book. The art work and pictures were taken to a commercial artist for mounting and arranging. The pictures then went to an engraving company where zinc or copper plates were made of them. When the plates were completed, all the writing had to be ready, too, so that from the engraver's they could go directly to the printer's. The printer made a proof of the book, and this proof came back to school to be corrected before the final copies were printed.

The yearbook is a product of much time and effort, but it is a book which means much to us and of which we are truly proud.

Fred Fidler, Carol Whitlock, Andre Nielsen, Anne Snead, Madelyn Solari, Jane Royster, Mildred Gambill.

Protective forces of the forty-niners were not organized. Groups of men organized themselves for the common protection of their lives and mining claims, as the army was not large enough nor efficient enough to police the mining areas and put down trouble that might arise. THE HONOR COURTS

The Honor Court and the General Committee working in conjunction with one another serve to maintain the Honor System. The Honor system of the John Marshall Corps of Cadets is designed to instill in the cadet a true sense of "Duty, Honor, Country", and to further the desire of each cadet to develop within himself a feeling of self-respect and pride.

The Honor Court tries cadets for breaches of its rules and lowering the Standard of the Corps. The primary function of the General Committee, whose members are selected as they display the proper qualifications, is to maintain high standards in the Corps of Cadets. This it accomplishes by proper instruction of each recruit class, by additional instruction of all classes as may be necessary, by deciding on points of the Standards not clearly defined, by calling to account those cadets who fail to uphold the Standards, and by personal example.

The men enjoyed wrestling, fishing, and hunting; while the children were content with racing and playing with homemade toys. See Advertisement Section for picture identification.

The Blue and White team rolled on the field for the first game of the year with Central High of Washington. The team was all out to win, and did by a score of 14 to 0.

On September 25 we met the power houses from Norfolk, defeating them 12 to 0.

On October 1 they were engaged to meet the strong St. Christopher eleven. A couple of times it looked like a first defeat for the Blue and White, but again Coach Hickey's mighty eleven marched on to victory over the Saints with a score of 12 to 0.

BALL

Still remaining unbeaten and unscored upon, the Justices were to meet the tough Benedictine eleven the following Friday night. The Irish put up a good fight, but it wasn't enough to stop the mighty Justices from ploughing them under by a score of 20 to 0.

On October 15, the team went on its first road game. They were to meet the Magicians from Jefferson Senior High of Roanoke. The Justices knew this would probably be the toughest game of the season. And it was, too. The Roanoke Magicians turned back the Blue and White team by a score of 27 to 13.

The Justices, back in the running again, were to meet the high-scoring Blue Devils. The Justices, confident, went down to the Wonder City and handed the Blue Devils a 7 to 6 defeat.

With only 3 games to go, the mighty Justices traveled to Alexandria to play George Washington High. The George Washington eleven ploughed under the Blue and White team by a score of 36 to 14.

Saturday, November 20, 1948, John Marshall vs. Thomas Jefferson. This was truly football day in Richmond. Being bitter rivals, each team was all out to smear the other. The mighty Justices tied the Presidents with a score of 13 to 13.

On Thanksgiving Day, the Justices met Petersburg, plodding through the muck and mud to down the Petersburg eleven 13 to 6.

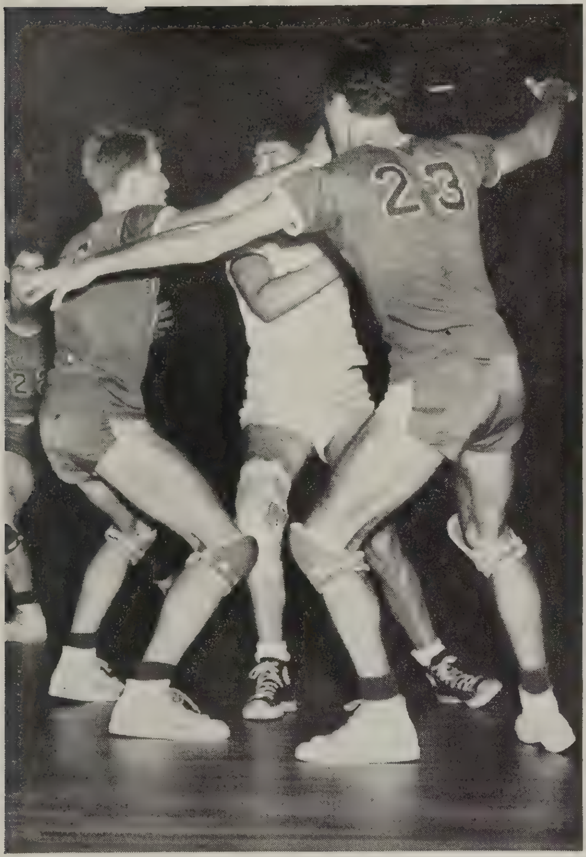
BASKETBALL



Gentry is boxed in by Benedictine's Hicks and Boehling.

On January 7, the Justices played E. C. Glass of Lynchburg. Captain Paul Gentry led the Justices scoring with 17 points, but they fell before a 49-46 defeat.

When Jayem met the Crimson Wave of Petersburg, it was a different story, however, as again Captain Paul Gentry led the Justices with 22 points. Petersburg fell under the strain of the Blue and White by a score of 51-35. Buddy Simmons connected for 11 points.

On January 14, the Justices ran over St. Christopher by a score of 43-32. The half time score was tied at 22 all. Ed Huff led the scoring with 13 points for the Justices.

On January 21, Paul Gentry and Company romped over the Irish of Benedictine by a score of 62-41.

January 22, Jayem played Granby at Norfolk. The Justices were pressed hard throughout the entire game. But nevertheless, Captain Paul Gentry led his teammates to a 44-39 victory over the Blue Comets.

"John Marshall romps over Hopewell". That was the headline in the paper when Captain Paul Gentry led the Victors by connecting for 50 points and setting a new high school scoring record by defeating the Blue Devils 83-40.

January 28, the Blue and White plowed under the Red and White by a score of 56-33.

With a six game winning streak, the Justices met the "Baby Spiders" of University of Richmond. Again Captain Gentry led his team by connecting for 31 points. Mel Roach followed up with 14.

Seventy-two to eighteen was the score of the Jayem-

Benedictine return engagement. Gentry played only half the game, but connected for 21 points. Roach was close behind with 14.

With one over-time period in full session, the Justices pulled one out of the bag to send the Papooses of William and Mary back to the reservation with a 64-63 defeat. Gentry connected for 31 points. Hoffman and Simmons each got 10 points.

Jayem played Teejay at Teejay gym. The Blue and White — Red and White teams played a nip and tuck game all through the game until the fourth quarter when T. J. burst ahead to down John Marshall 45-40.

Jayem racked up 64 points in the return game with Hopewell to down them 64-41. Captain Paul Gentry connected for 21 points. Huff and Simmons followed with 11 points each.

Gentry was held to 18 points, but Mel Roach connected for 19 when the Justices downed St. Christopher's 67-43 in their return game.

When Granby of Norfolk invaded Richmond, the Justices didn't play around. They defeated the Blue Comets by a score of 62-49.

The last game of the season was a thriller, as Jayem downed W. & M. freshmen for the second time, 50-46.

On April 5, John Marshall played Thomas Jefferson at Shawen Field. The Presidents yielded before the Justices by a score of 8 to 5.

On April 9, the Justices journeyed to Norfolk to play Granby for the second time. The Blue Comets bowed before the Justices 15 to 12.

On April 11, Jayem played Hopewell at Hotchkiss Field, winning by a score of 4 to 3.

April 19, Jayem played Petersburg. In this game, the Blue and White were less fortunate, as the Crimson Wave pulled one out of the bag to upset Jayem to the tune of 9 to 6. This was the first loss of the season for the Justices.

On April 22, John Marshall played Benedictine at Mooer's Field, playing under the lights for the first time this year. The Blue and White came through to down the Irish 5 to 2.

TRACK

Eddie Long clears the high jump.

For an inexperienced team the Jayem Thinclads looked pretty good at the Invitational Indoor Track Meet at Chapel Hill, N. C. Although they didn't bring back many points or the plaque the team got plenty of experience watching the colleges compete.

The experience which they got, came in handy a few weeks later as John Marshall downed Petersburg 93 to 18.

Co-Captains Jack Sanford and Allen Jones led the way with 15 and 13 points respectively. Allen Barbee a newcomer collected quite a few points himself.

The team at its peak, thought everyone, looked pretty good. On the following Saturday, the tables were turned as the Hilltoppers of Lynchburg trounced Jayem by a score of 67½ to 43½.

The following week, Jayem played host to the Hampton Crabbers, who were all out to get "revenge" for what Jayem's eleven did to them during the football campaign. They got it to, revenge that is, as they handed the Justices a second defeat by a score of 47¾ to 43¼.

Allen Jones, Jack Sanford, Cecil Cheatham, and Carl Nicholas get ready to run the relay.

Eddie Long, Buddy Gregory, Teddy Vest, and Jack Sanford practice distance running.

Recovering from the two blows, Jayem took on Hopewell, the following Saturday only to bow for the third time in succession to the Blue Devils 56 to 47.

The Justice Thinclads who have not had a very successful season thus far were engaged to tangle the Presidents of Thomas Jefferson who had had a very successful season. For the fourth time the Justices bowed to their opponent 72 to 37.

After the Teejay meet, came the Tidewater meet at Williamsburg. Jayem, last year's champs, went down there as underdog. The Blue and White collected only four points.

State Champions, John Marshall, went into the state meet with little hope of success. Tough luck boys.

The new players were Gerry Woody, Connie Rawls, Ann Gouldin, Gloria Smith, Lorraine Burton, Muriel Young, Carolyn White and Marjorie Scott. The season opened on January 19, with John Marshall losing to Hopewell by a score of 28 to 15. Despite the defeat, Connie Rawls, the team captain, managed to score ten points.

John Marshall came back on January 21 and defeated Collegiate 31 to 15, Connie scoring 18 points.

February 8, the hard fighting Justices came out on the short end of a tight score in competition with St. Joseph's Villa, losing by 21 to 19.

The next two games were victories for the team, easily defeating James Monroe, 23 to 14, and the strongest rival Thomas Jefferson, 19 to 14.

On February 23, the Justices lost to Chester, 22 to 18.

The last league game of the season the girls perked up and took an easy victory over St. Patrick's by a score of 30 to 13.

The Mark of a Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. How to Make Friends, and KEEP THEM

1. Keep skid chains on your tongue; always say less than you think. Cultivate a low, persuasive voice. How you say it often counts for more than what you say.
2. Make promises sparingly, and keep them faithfully, no matter what it costs you.
3. Never let an opportunity pass to say a kind and encouraging thing to or about somebody. Praise good work done, regardless of who did it. If criticism is merited, criticize helpfully, never spitefully.
4. Be interested in others; interested in their pursuits, their welfare, their homes and families. Make merry with those who rejoice, and mourn with those who weep. Let everyone you meet, however humble, feel that you regard him as a person of importance.
5. Be cheerful. Keep the corners of your mouth turned up. Hide your pains, worries and disappointments under a pleasant smile. Laugh at good stories, and learn to tell them.
6. Preserve an open mind on all debatable questions. Discuss, but don't argue. It is a mark of superior minds to disagree and yet be friendly.
7. Let your virtues, if you have any, speak for themselves, and refuse to talk to another's vices. Discourage gossip, and make it a rule to say nothing of another unless it is something good.
8. Be careful of others' feelings. Wit and humor at the other fellow's expense are rarely worth the effort, and may hurt where least expected.
9. Pay no attention to ill-natured remarks about you. Simply live so nobody will believe them. Disordered nerves and poor digestion are common causes of backbiting.
10. Don't be too anxious about getting just dues. Do your work, be patient, keep your disposition sweet, forget self, and you will be respected and rewarded.

Life Insurance for Safety . . and Security

A successful savings plan must provide a regular amount to be saved on a regular day for a specific purpose.

Life Insurance is the best plan yet devised to teach us the habit of saving and to keep us faithful to that habit. It is not an expense but a savings. It should be the first factor in everyone's program — the last to let go.

Life Insurance creates an estate immediately, which might otherwise never be acquired. Make sure of your estate by the purchase of life insurance while you are young.
